

$19.4 Million Project*Morena Linked Up

Part Of 'Concrete Jungle' Opens Soon

By David Lewis, Sentinel Staff Reporter

Some kind of order will emerge from that jumble of concrete and machinery on Interstate 5 late this week with the opening of the first segment of the $19.4 million project.

An interchange linking South Mission Bay Drive and Morena Boulevard to Interstate 5 and a mile long stretch of freeway adjacent to it will be ready for traffic Thursday or Friday or early the following week, according to the state Division of Highways. The $3.7 million interchange links Morena to the east and South Mission Bay Drive to the west to traffic going both north and south on the freeway.

"Opening this segment should alleviate a lot of the traffic now taking the Morena Bridge and Taylor Street into San Diego," according to Chuck Johnson, public information officer for the Division of Highways. Johnson said the interchange is designed to connect with the proposed Tecolote Canyon Road eventually.

Although this segment opens now, all other portions of the complex aren't programmed for use until the Spring of 1969, said Johnson.

North of the completed interchange initial work has begun for a similar interchange at Clairemont Drive. The Clairemont Drive interchange will have a roadway elevated over Morena Boulevard and adjacent railroad tracks. In addition to providing full access North and South on Interstate 5, it will provide further access to Mission Bay Park.

Part of the same $5.3 million contract will be an alteration to the traffic pattern where South Mission Bay Drive links Interstate 5 to Pacific Beach. Traffic now exits to the left for entrance to Pacific Beach.

When construction is completed, traffic will be routed to the right underneath the present bridge structures and under a second bridge to be constructed for an additional four lanes of traffic. Johnson said that the present bridges handling North and Southbound traffic will be joined to handle traffic going North.

The last segment of the project will be additional access ramps allowing Northbound traffic to exit directly to Balboa Avenue and a ramp routing traffic South from Balboa onto Interstate 5.

About 34 per cent completed is the largest portion of the project, dollarwise, a four-level interchange that will handle traffic from Interstate 5, 8 and State Route 109. The $10.9 million project, San Diego's largest freeway interchange, will have 33 lane miles of freeway when finished, according to Johnson.

The project incorporates a new freeway —

State 109 — into the present system. The new route will begin at the interchange and continue Westward along the South edge of the San Diego Flood Control Channel to Midway Drive where an interchange will be constructed that is scheduled to open in 1969 with the rest of the project. The freeway will continue from that interchange to its terminus at Sunset Cliffs Boulevard and Nimitz Freeway.

According to Johnson, eight lanes are planned for the first segment from the master interchange to Midway Drive and four lanes, with space for two more at a later date, from Midway on. Johnson said the new route will provide better entrance and exit from the beach areas and will allow traffic to reach Interstate 8 and Mission Valley without traveling through the Midway-Frontier area and the Rosecrans Street interchanges.

Youth Committee Makes Cultural Center Proposal

By MANUEL CRUZ

Sentinel Staff Reporter

The need to establish a self-supporting peninsula cultural center—one that would bring to life local history and art—has risen out of talks between a working youth committee and this area's local community planning organization.

Supporters of this proposed cultural center, which would be functional as well as an esthetic contribution to the community, are members of a youth group working under Peninsulans, Inc.

Chuck Bahde, Peninsulans, Inc., president, and advisor to the committee, said the cultural center proposal was brought up several times by the young people as they worked to develop concrete ideas for the future planning of the peninsula.

Although some of the youth committee members have already graduated from high school, Bahde said he would continue to work with them in keeping the cultural center idea fresh in their minds. A cultural center, Bahde said, could be established on the peninsula entirely through donations from interested individuals who live and work here.

It would include facilities—depending on the desire of the community—for the several forms of art such as paintings, sculpture, music and ballet; a museum which would contain donated items of local history, and a library strictly related to historically significant events of the peninsula.

Community Groups
But that's not all, Bahde said. The cultural center might include a much-needed community bulletin board, and multi-purpose offices that would house the working staffs of such local organizations as the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, Peninsulans, Inc., Peninsula Recreation Council, and other groups that have influence on the peninsula.

Another addition to the center, he said, might be a theater which could be used for all types of stage productions including plays, ballets, and musical revues, and which would be staged by professional as well as amateur performers.

"The need for such a center is great on the peninsula," Bahde said, "but it will be up to the people here to determine how great."

The planning group president proposed that a peninsula Art and Cultural Foundation be formed to work in raising funds for the cultural center. It would be composed of volunteers from the community who are interested and ready to help in the establishing of a center.

It would be the purpose of this foundation, Bahde said, to determine the best location of a center, to determine how to raise funds, and to work in promoting art and culture that exist on the peninsula.

"The center—if the people want it—would be entirely self-supporting and should be located in a central spot to serve people in Point Loma, Loma Portal and Ocean Beach," the president said.

Needs of Young
"The center should not only serve the needs of adults," Bahde added, "but it should cater to the needs of young people as well. You don't start learning culture when you're 35; you start learning from the day you are born."

Because discussions of the cultural center were of a general nature among youth committee members, cost estimates of the proposal were not covered. Bahde said it would take a long study by interested people to determine what is needed—and how much is needed to finance a proposed cultural center.

Bahde, who is an architectural design consultant, said concerted action for a center must be taken within a reasonable amount of time before land values make the proposal unfeasible.

In describing the facilities that might be included in the center, Bahde pointed out that many of the rooms could be used for several different functions, according to its specific needs for a specified event.

For example, the theater facility could be used for a drama performance one evening, and then it could be transformed into a public meeting hall for the next evening. "In that way the facilities would be functional as well as beautiful," the planning group president said.

When it comes to stocking the proposed center's library and art facilities, the peninsula is teeming with local historical artifacts and events that could be easily catalogued, Bahde said.

Significant
The proposed Peninsula art and cultural foundation would feature works of local artists and sculptors. The library, said Bahde, would be a place where a person could delve into the history of the peninsula, and find information on persons and places that have become significant through the years.

Bahde said no action will be taken on the cultural center proposal until that time when the community supports the idea. He said it was important that the center concept be studied by the planning group because of its study of long-range goals for the peninsula.

CONCRETE JUNGLE—Clairemont residents will have an additional "out route" next week with the opening of a freeway interchange from Interstate 5. The interchange will also link Clairemont and motorists on 15 to Mission Bay Park. At left is Weeks Street which interchange crosses to reach Morena. White strip is mile long portion of freeway that is also slated to open. View is looking south on freeway.

FRANKLIN SWAN FOUNTAIN

Methodists Conduct Memorial Funding

The Point Loma Methodist Church is conducting a fund raising campaign for a Franklin F. Swan Memorial Fountain to honor the late San Diego councilman and active Ocean Beach civic and church leader.

The campaign was initiated by Rev. Robert Fehlman, pastor of the church, and Mr. Franklin's widow, the former Ruth Vadma.

Swan was active in the Point Loma Methodist Church for more than 20 years until his death April 24, 1967. Fehlman said the Ocean Beach resident was a board member of the church and served on its pastoral relations committee.

He was noted for his interest in church affairs, the pastor said, and in 1957 completed a comprehensive history of the church.

Fehlman said the memorial tribute to Swan will comprise of a water fountain in the church courtyard. The base of the fountain—the remnant of a previous structure—is presently located in the courtyard and funds are being solicited to add a decorative fish head of stone.

Greek Letters
The proposed bubbling fountain will also feature Greek letters on the side of the base. The existing fountain, which is not in operation now, was constructed several months ago.

Fehlman said enthusiasts that are working for the memorial fountain have not yet decided upon the amount of funds necessary to bring it to completion.

Because Swan was a member of the Ocean Beach Kiwanis Club, the organization has initiated its own fund raising drive to supplement the effort. Maurice Papier, a member, is in charge of the Kiwanis drive.

Main Interests

"In his retirement years," said Fehlman, "Franklin Swan had two main interests, the church and the Kiwanis." The long-time resident of Ocean Beach was a native of Storm Lake, Iowa, who graduated from the University of Wisconsin as a journalism major.

Arriving in San Diego in 1943, Swan purchased the Ocean Beach News and settled down in the beach community. Later, in 1950, he sold the News and the Point Loma Light, consolidated newspapers which were later renamed the Peninsula News as part of the North Shores Sentinel.

City Councilman
Swan was a San Diego city Councilman for the first district until his retirement in 1953. He married his second wife, Ruth Vadma, Sept. 24, 1961.

He was a past president of the Ocean Beach Kiwanis Club and the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce which was renamed in 1960 to Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.

The civic leader, in 1946, was elected to the presidency of the San Diego County unit of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, and was a veteran writer and newspaper owner for most of his adult years.

The memorial fountain will commemorate his outstanding contributions to Ocean Beach and to San Diego. Swan was 85 years old when he died.

65 Families Still Homeless In Beach Area

Or so it seems to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Canaan, who recently leased their home in Crown Point through a $3.00 "For Rent" ad in the Sentinel Classified Section. The third caller was the lucky family closely followed by 65 disappointed inquiries.

So whatever your needs may be, you're sure to find a "home" in Sentinel Classified... everyone's local marketplace. The fast action number is 274-3210.

Prestigious Pulchritude Parade Prepared

The search is about to begin for the beauty who will reign as Miss Mission Bay and Aqua Queen 1967.

Girls from all over the county are invited to join in the competition, which will bring the lucky winner prizes, prestige and a place at the head of all the Aquaweeke festivities.

At a press picnic held this week by Mission Bay, the officials in charge of Aquaweeke disclosed the requirements for the beauty queen.

Besides being beautiful, she must be coordinated, athletic, wholesome and charming, said members of Mission Bay Associates.

Since she will preside over the sports-filled Aquaweeke activities, she should have some athletic ability, although it is not yet certain whether she will be required to com-

City Birthday Proclaimed

Mayor Frank Curran has declared today as "San Diego Day" in recognition of the city's 198th anniversary. "Take special note that the city is looking forward and planning a 200th anniversary celebration in 1969." He asked citizens to further note that San Diego is the city where California began.

pete in a sport to win her title.

Neighborly Approach
Judges will be looking for the "girl-next-door" image, so contestants will be expected to be clean-cut and poised.

On Sept. 17, a week after the preliminaries, the final judging will take place in front of an estimated several thousand people at the "world's biggest family picnic."

Crowning the winner with the glittering tiara representing her title will take the place of the Coronation Ball which was held at the Islandia Hotel last year.

Though the prizes for the queen have not yet been selected, last year's Miss Mission Bay, Linda Arthur, received a variety of gifts donated by local merchants. To this "hope chest," as it was called, were added a trophy, tiara and ribbons from Mission Bay Associates, swim suits and a radio.

The winner of the contest will preside over the Aquaweeke festivities, which will include such attractions as the family picnic, dance bands of all kinds, a carnival, a 100-mile paddleboard race, folk singing and square dancing, a golf tournament, a boat show, and fireworks as a finale.

She will also be on deck when the hydroplanes, the lightning quick, razor edged 200 mile an hour speedsters, run the Fourth Annual San Diego Cup Unlimited Races; and she will watch the newly added 250-mile endurance race for smaller powerboats.

One of the hydroplanes expected to enter is backed by a San Diego veteran of the Unlimited Class racing, Don Hancock, whose boat for several years has been the sentimental favorite among the local community.

The power boat race might draw Governor Reagan to Aquaweeke '67, said officials, especially since the governor's son, Michael, is a power boat enthusiast and is likely to be a contestant in the 250-mile race.

Although the queen's gifts will come primarily from local merchants and Mission Bay Associates, Aquaweeke itself will be financed by the City of San Diego. The city has set aside $86,000 for the event, and will attempt to get back its investment by selling booster pins at $1 apiece.

Though admission to almost all the events is free, Mission Bay Associates hopes that a spirit of "community participation" will take over, both in terms of attendance and the sale of booster pins.

A girl wishing to reign over all this activity should call 276-2800 for more information.

Peninsulans Will Discuss Public Airing

Peninsulans, Inc. will discuss the scheduling of upcoming public meetings to air the much awaited community plan completed text Thursday at 7:30 a.m. in Mister B's Pancake House in Point Loma.

The community plan organization's executive board will also review the completed text and other related material.

Portions of the community plan text will be reviewed tomorrow by the executive board at 8:30 a.m. in the fourth floor conference room of the Community Concourse.

The text—a compilation of material studied by the group for more than a year and a half—encompasses studies of traffic, recreation and parks, housing, commercial property, and future developments for an area including Point Loma, Ocean Beach and Loma Portal.

The people living and working in the mentioned areas will be given the opportunity to study the completed plan text and to make recommendations for its improvement.

Public meetings will be scheduled over several weeks' time to give as many people as possible the opportunity to review the plan.

In the plan, specific information is presented on how the community should be developed until 1985 when the peninsula will hold an estimated 75,000 people. It shows what type of structures (residential, apartments, commercial, etc.) is now situated on the peninsula and where they should be situated in the future.

Street Ideas
The plan text, in addition, gives estimated traffic projections on all major peninsula streets for 1985 and makes recommendations, new streets, and widening of streets.

After the completed plan text is reviewed by the planning group and the citizens in the area, it will be presented to the city Planning Department for approval.

Approval by the City Council will then follow, hopefully, and the process of implementing the comprehensive study will begin.

Cadets Trained On Subs

The second group of midshipmen arrived at Ballast Point Thursday to start their at-sea Summer training program with Submarine Flotilla One.

The first group of 35 midshipmen arrived in June and will train until August. The 25 new arrivals will train until September.

Submarines employed for training the first group of midshipmen are USS Raton, USS Caiman, USS Menhaden, USS Ronquil, USS Segundo, and USS Volador.

The second group will train in the submarines USS Bluegill, USS Bugara, USS Razorback and USS Spinax.

During their training with Submarine Flotilla One, the midshipmen will put to practical use all they learned in the classrooms at the Naval Academy or their universities' NROTC program.

They perform all the duties of a junior officer and stand watches, perform navigational and engineering duties, and assist other ship officers so they may gain a better understanding of the life of a submarine officer.

Events Told For Festival In September

The 1967 Cabrillo Festival Steering Committee has approved its tentative program of major events that will comprise a week-long September celebration of the discovery of San Diego.

Major events will begin on Sept. 22 with a fireworks display reception for the Portuguese Ambassador and boat parade.

The following day at 10 a.m. an all-day art show will begin at the island.

On the 24th the City and County Band will perform at 1:30 p.m. before the reenactment of Portuguese explorer Joao Rodrigues Cabrillo's landing.

Fred Lewis, a local radio announcer, will narrate the program. Invocation will be by Msgr. William Booth of the Catholic diocese.

The actual reenactment of the explorer and his party's landing will commence at 2 p.m. with Tony Codina portraying Cabrillo. He will make a short speech and will be welcomed by Bob Harvey, chairman of the festival steering committee.

State Official
California's governor or his representative will then be introduced, and he will introduce the Portuguese Ambassador to the United States, Vasco Vieira Garin.

Following at 2:40 p.m. will be the dancing of Portuguese youth and an Indian and choral group.

The 1967 Cabrillo Festival will run Sept. 21-28 and commemorate the 425th anniversary of the discovery of the West Coast of America. The steering committee is the organization planning events and activities for the celebration.

'Senior City' Complex Gets 'Use Permit'

A retirement complex rejected in La Jolla was approved for Pacific Beach by the city Planning Commission Wednesday with only one person in opposition.

The commission voted unanimously to approve a conditional use permit filed by Western Horizons, a Baptist-affiliated group, for construction of a 16-story retirement center. Also approved were the closing of Yosemite Street between La Playa and Roosevelt Avenues and two alleys. A tentative map for the project was also okayed.

A recommendation by the city Planning Department that medium density residential zoning be approved for the area, now zoned for high density use, was tabled by the commission pending the closing of escrow.

Jerry Brewer, representing architects Tucker, Sadler and Bennett, said development should start soon after the close of escrow. The retirement complex will include about 420 living units, a 100-bed nursing facility, a 150-seat chapel, and other accessory uses.

The Planning Commission action is final unless appealed within 10 days. If appealed, the matter would go to the City Council.

Brewer said that about $7 million in initial construction is planned, but the total project may exceed $20 million. Brewer said that only about 33 per cent of the land area will be utilized, allowing for considerable open space. A coverage of 60 per cent is allowed under zoning regulations.

Total building area in the initial construction will be about 350,000 square feet, including covered parking areas. The project includes about 300,000 square feet of property.

The retirement home was earlier approved by the Pacific Beach Town Council and the Pacific-Mission Beach Planning Committee. It will be located opposite an apartment development for single people, also on a section of the former Cyane tract.

Breath Rescue Taught

Mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing instruction will be given to all interested people Aug. 10 at Ocean Beach Recreation Center.

The recreation center will join organizations as the local fire department, the Junior Woman's Club and the Heart Association in presenting a program of film and demonstration instruction.

Firemen and physician-members of the Heart Association will demonstrate on the association's life-size manikin, "Resusci-Anne" and on its half-man, "Joe Blow."

The 16-minute color film, "Breath of Life," shows the special method of using mouth-to-mouth rescue breathing to revive infants and children.

The program will be given at 7:30 p.m. at the recreation center as one of several projects conducted throughout San Diego through Aug. 10.

Two Deaths
Dr. William J. Kuzman, Heart Association president, said the decision to take mouth-to-mouth breathing instruction into communities was prompted by the deaths of two children in swimming pools already this year.

Pool owners, parents, swimmers—all should be prepared for emergencies, he said. "Most swimming pool deaths could be prevented."

Street Closings Go To Council

Several street and alley closings proposed by the developers of the West portion of the former Cyane housing tract will be presented to the City Council for approval Tuesday.

South Bay Club Apartments, which plans to develop about 500 units for single persons, has asked for the closings to assist in its development. Closed would be Promontory Street between La Playa Avenue and Fortuna Avenue; Roosevelt Avenue between Haines Street and Ingraham Street; and the northerly 7.5 feet of La Playa Avenue in addition to several alleys. Most of the closings are within the South Bay tract.

The closings were approved by the city Planning Commission have the endorsement of the city Planning Department. The hearing will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday in the City Council chambers, 12th Floor, City Administration.

Scientific Teachers Learn At NCCCLC

Six high school science teachers have been welcomed to Naval Command Control Communications Laboratory Center on Point Loma (formerly NEL) as the lab begins its seventh consecutive year of participation in the National Science Foundation Research Participation Program.

NCCCLC joined the research program in 1961 which is intended to increase the teachers' understanding of science and scientific methods, and to enhance his ability to guide superior students in projects and independent study.

The teachers become involved in a range of projects covering such subjects as applied mathematics, chemistry, oceanography, psychology, electronics, underwater sound, radar and radio.

The center is one of five California institutions participating in the program.

Participants
Research participants for 1967 include Gerald E. Buck, a chemistry teacher to work in noise rating techniques; Donald A. Jackman, mathematics teacher to work in the field of computer programming; Douglas E. Dietrich, biology and chemistry instructor, to assist in oceanographic research; Raymond V. Stebbins, mathematics teacher, to work in the radar division; Kenneth B. Sager, science and mathematics instructor, who will be assigned in the marine environment division, and Brenda A. Montgomery, mathematics instructor, who will work in the lab's mathematical analysis center for computer work.

Douglas will soon be among the more than 300,000 Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute graduates who have increased their reading efficiency an average of 470%.

Other graduates include members of the White House Staff under the late President Kennedy, members of Congress, business executives, educators, high school and college students and housewives.

Reader's Views

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my opinion regarding the demonstrations which occurred in the vicinity of the Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles on June 23, 1967 during the visit of our President, Mr. Johnson, who was a special guest at a dinner sponsored by the Democratic officials of the Central Committee of Southern California.

There were no arrangements made by this committee to permit these demonstrators to appear there. I do know by statements made over the radio by three or more people who were connected with the communist party that they would carry out their program during the President's dinner even if they did not obtain a permit.

I understand that there were about 12,000 people there to take part in this demonstration. I understand their purpose was to contact the President and insist that he would discontinue the war there, and to see that our boys are returned to the United States and it was necessary to call on the Police Department to assign about 1,200 officers on the detail which was getting out of control by some of the people in this crowd.

The police did everything they could by warning them and over the loud speakers asking or demanding to keep moving away from the entrance of the Hotel; this they refused to comply with.

Some of them became abusive, throwing stones and bottles at the officers and making insulting remarks, so the officers had to use force to keep them moving away from this district and now they are claiming the police used brutality; these statements were made by them over the radio stations. The Chief of Police denied these statements.

I believe that all these demonstrations, including those made by members of the Civil Rights; therefore, I suggest that our State and City officials appoint a committee to contact our Senators and Congressmen to revise and amend our constitution and enact laws and ordinances to prohibit all such demonstrations.

I believe it is the duty of all these officials, regardless of their political factions, to see that all law enforcement officers enforce all these laws properly.

I am positive that our President, Mr. Johnson, is very much in favor to bring about honorable and just peace in this conflict in Vietnam and to have our boys back home safely. He has requested of the enemies to negotiate this problem; he has personally taken this matter up in conference with the Premier of Russia, Mr. Kosygin, recently. We know that Russia has aided and furnished our enemies with Military supplies such as missiles and other weapons.

All these demonstrations cause riots, hatred and misunderstandings. Our President has other problems to consider, which are our rights and interests there, as we have a signed treaty with these Vietnam officials there to protect our rights against any enemies or aggressors.

I am sure if these pickets who demonstrate demanding certain rights and privileges would negotiate these problems with the people concerned, it would help to solve their problems and would prevent any further demonstrations as we know that on many occasions picketing leads to many difficulties.

Yours truly,
Charles F. Gailing

Editor:

Humanitarians concerned with the plight of abandoned animals here know there is a pressing need for a safe shelter in the San Diego vicinity.

As Chairman of the newly-formed branch of Mercy Crusade, Inc., I wish to join efforts with all who truly want to do something about it. We are organizing a lost-and-found telephone service, and need somewhere to put the lost ones until owners can be found. If anyone has such facilities, or will co-operate with us in finding one, please call 274-2256 or 283-5270.

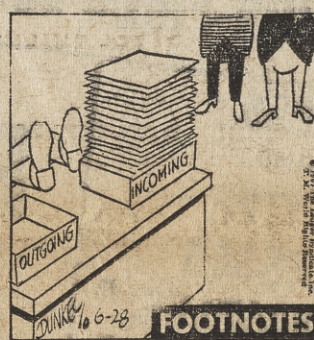

So many small groups and individuals struggling alone find it difficult to accomplish anything. If we all pool our ideas and energies, we will be a strong and effective power for good. Once we all know one another and cooperate, support would follow, and a real shelter—a trusted sanctuary—be built up.

We should form a central committee, comprised of the heads of the various groups, to meet and co-ordinate action. Leaders could then return to their groups with a sure direction as to where we are all going. Simple democracy like this needs no "boss," just practical business-like plans agreeable to all.

The need is urgent, increasing as San Diego grows. We either stay apart and fall as humanitarians, or collaborate and succeed, as other large cities and counties do.

Marian Hamilton,
Executive Chairman, Mercy Crusade, Inc., San Diego branch, 4293 Avati Drive, San Diego, 92117.

Women's College To Increase Curriculum

Plans for increasing offerings in the field of Special Education, with the appointment of new faculty members, were announced recently by Mother Margaret Guest, chairman of the education department at San Diego College for Women.

Dr. Robert Nelson, PhD, will become director of special education on the Alcala Park campus. He has served for the last three years as supervisor of secondary programs for the mentally retarded and emotionally handicapped pupils of San Diego Unified School District. In this capacity he successfully organized and provided leadership in curricular and instructional programs for the mentally retarded.

Dr. Nelson, whose graduate work was concluded at Syracuse University with a doctorate in Special Education, has had several years in administrative posts. He has, in addition, served as school psychologist in the Santa Monica School District, where his work consisted of psychological diagnosis and evaluation of student performance. Previously he had had the post of advisor to graduate students in Special Education at the University of Virginia. "We are indeed fortunate that Dr. Nelson now wants to devote his considerable talents more exclusively to teaching," Mother Guest said. Last year he taught courses in mental retardation for U.C. Extension Division, San Diego.

Joining Dr. Nelson in this important work will be Mrs. Alice David, instructor in Special Education and Miss Patricia Lindquist, who specializes in speech and language development for the mentally retarded.

The present program was planned as an experimental series of courses for the training of teachers in 1964. The program is designed to fulfill the California certification requirements for specialized education and to be a suitable minor for the elementary or secondary credential for those planning to work in this field.

Lunch Honors W. C. Moeser For Service

The San Diego County Men's Democratic Club will co-sponsor, with members of the San Diego County Democratic Central Committee, a luncheon honoring William C. Moeser, at noon Wednesday at the U. S. Grant Hotel.

Murray D. Goodrich and Harry E. Farb will make a special presentation honoring Moeser for his years of dedicated service to the Democratic Party of California.

R. R. Richardson, secretary-treasurer of the San Diego County Labor Council, Gertrude Alcaraz, Director of COPE, and San Diego County's Democratic legislators will be among the distinguished guests present.

Reservations for the luncheon can be made by calling Democratic Headquarters: 239-8097.

If you get paid once a month you'll be interested in cookbooks of hamburger recipes for those last of the month meals. They are available at the San Diego Public Library.

Bored with your home? Daydream over some of the lovely home decorating books at the San Diego Public Library.

THE SPINAL COLUMN

By Dr. John J. Flynn

Nearly every chiropractic patient comes searching and hoping for a cure of some "chronic" condition. We find that many have tried most everything. They get patched up, they get temporary relief, but they never seem to get well!

We find that most of these unfortunate people have been taught that if we become sick, if we are not well, or if we wish to feel better, something should be taken, swallowed, or injected into our body — and if this fails, something should be cut out. The chiropractic procedure is to use what is already there, and to adjust or re-arrange it to conform with the Laws of Nature so that Innate Intelligence may express itself to the best of its ability.

Usually, these people never get well because their spines have become so de-arranged or distorted that many nerve cables are so impinged that it is virtually impossible for the tremendous healing power of Nature to "get through" these choked nerve lines to do its job.

Frequently, after we have made the corrective spinal adjustment, a new patient will ask, "Is that all you do?" I reply, "Yes, it is like the surgeon who sets the broken leg and lets the body do all the healing. Have you ever stopped to think that all we do is chew and swallow our food; then the enzymes

Town Talk

By MARY FISHEL

HAVE YOU HEARD . . . that according to the Citizens Interracial Committee of San Diego County, who have published an article entitled "A Few Tips to Tactful Talkers" . . . we should all avoid racial jokes don't talk about "colored mammy" nor use such terms as "Sambo" or "Boy" in referring to Negroes, never use racial, religious or nationality nicknames such as "Darkey" . . . "Pickaninny," don't say "Indian Giver," "Nigger in the Woodpile," "Free, White and Twenty-One," "Chinamen's Chance" . . . don't generalize about groups of people (well now that IS true) avoid using "your people or my people" (wasn't that in the Bible somewhere?) and on and on. All I've got to say is what has happened to everyone's sense of humor? One of my favorite books when I was little was "Little Black Sambo." It made me like the darker skinned race.

Doesn't anyone remember Stephen Collins Foster, born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, one of the greatest American composers who wrote "Beautiful Dreamer" . . . "Old Black Joe" . . . "Old Folks at Home" . . . "My Old Kentucky Home" . . . The Stephen Collins Foster Memorial Building in the Cathedral of Learning at the University of Pittsburgh has a collection and Little Theater.

His music was cherished as an expression of the American Negro's spiritual yearnings. Foster's biographer Harold V. Milligan said that in Foster's songs the Negro ceases to be a caricature and becomes a human being.

Speaking of "pickaninnys" . . . I don't believe I have ever seen anything cuter or prettier than a little "pickaninny."

FLASH BULBS . . . were popping . . . movies being taken . . . colored film being loaded . . . it was a great day! The center of all this attention was Jeffrey Ronald Lower, who had just come to live with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wade Lower . . . the former Jo Ann Hansen of Crown Point.

Everybody was there . . . that is of any importance except an Aunt and Uncle, Capt. William Wagner, Jr., USA, (she was Nancy Han-

Vets Should Contemplate Pension Filing

T. G. Goetz, director, County of San Diego Veterans' Service Department, today advised veterans contemplating retirement that, in most cases, the best time to file for War Veterans Pension is immediately after the retirement date.

"Under current law," Goetz explained, "all income received by the applicant from the date of the claim to the end of the year is counted in determining non-service pensions. Accrued annual leave, sick leave pay, and unemployment insurance are also counted."

The key to it all, according to Goetz, is the date of filing of the claim and the amount of income to be received during the remainder of the calendar year.

Goetz urged veterans approaching retirement date to contact the San Diego County Veterans Service Office for further information.

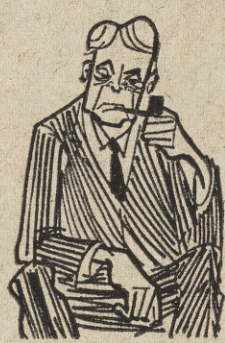

The San Diego County Veterans Service office is located in Room 1301, Courthouse, 220 West Broadway. Telephone 239-7711.

'Medicare' Observes First Anniversary

Medicare, which has its first anniversary this July, has been a benefit to many elderly Americans in its short existence. One man who has profited from Medicare is Robert F. McCoy, who would have been more at ease if Medicare had started earlier.

McCoy has not needed hospitalization yet under Medicare but has had large doctor bills. He has been very pleased with the way Medicare has helped him meet these bills. He also feels more secure that if he has to go to the hospital again, he will not be faced with the large bills he faced before Medicare started.

McCoy, a native of Springfield, Nebraska, has been a barber for 53 years. In 1957, McCoy moved to Pacific Beach and continued his barbering career.

McCoy, who celebrated his golden wedding anniversary in 1966, is the father of eight, grandfather of 17 and great-grandfather of four.

All-Star Basketball Tilt Slated Aug. 4

A College-Prep All-Star Basketball game, talked about for years, became a reality this week.

Director Bob McInerney of the sponsoring Breitbard Athletic Foundation announced that all problems in staging the game have been cleared and it will take place on Aug. 4 at Grossmont College.

The event, pitting the top graduated seniors from San Diego City and County high schools, came close to being cancelled last week.

"Quick action by the San Diego High School Basketball Coaches Association and its president, John Hannon, has made it possible to hold the game," McInerney said.

Hannon is the head basketball coach at Madison High and led the Warhawks to the Western League championship last season.

The Breitbard Athletic Foundation also sponsors baseball and football games featuring the City vs. County stars.

The basketball game will feature the same formula which has been successful in the baseball game, which had its third renewal last month, and the football game, which will be held Aug. 23 at Balboa Stadium for the 19th year in a row.

Two of San Diego's most successful basketball coaches, Crawford's Jim Sams and Helix' Bob Speidel, will guide the teams.

Speidel, recently named head basketball coach at Santa Ana College, will guide the County All-Stars. He obtained a 10-day leave-of-absence from his summer job with the Santa Ana Recreation Department to accept the post. This was the last barrier in making it possible to stage the game this year after the sponsors came within a whisker of calling it off until next season.

Speidel was chosen because of a sizzling .663 winning percentage in the last seven years at Helix.

Sams, who will head the City All-Stars, has compiled an equally impressive record.

As a frosh coach at San Diego State in 1957 (9-12), Kearny High in 1958 and 1959 (19-29) and the last eight years at Crawford (140-68) Sams has compiled a .613 winning percentage. His .673 winning percentage at Crawford includes the CIF title in 1962 when the Colts had a 24-6 record.

The City All-Stars will be selected from players in the Eastern and Western Leagues while the County All-Stars will be chosen from the other San Diego schools.

Rosters of the 12-man team will be announced within a week.

Western Leaguers dominated the All-San Diego CIF basketball squad, so it is expected the names of Kearny's Russ (Whimpy) Northcutt, La Jolla's Steve Haskett and Madison's Steve Rostoker will be on the City roster, possibly along with two other All-Western Leaguers, Ed Nelson of Madison and Phil Northcraft of Point Loma.

The All-Star clash will be the second half of a basketball doubleheader. The championship game of the San Diego High School Summer League will open the program with a 7 p.m. tipoff.

Tickets for this double-barrel attraction are priced at $2 for any of the 2,200 seats in the Grossmont College Gym.

Tickets are on sale at all Higgins and Crosthwaite Sporting Goods Stores, Stanley Andrews Sporting Goods Store in downtown San Diego, the Hall of Champions in Balboa Park and from all high school varsity basketball coaches.

Vinton Named County Coach

Warren Vinton, who led Helix High to the CIF championship game last season, was named to coach the County against the City in the annual College-Prep All-Star football game Aug. 23 at Balboa Stadium.

Vinton, who has compiled a 20-7-1 record while leading the Highlanders of the Grossmont League championship twice in the last three years, will be assisted by Bill White and Dick Feaser, his aides last year at Helix.

A native of Cut Bank, Montana, where he attended high school, Williamson is a graduate of Pasadena City College and the University of California at Santa Barbara. He has done graduate work at UCSB, UCLA and California State College Long Beach.

Williamson formerly has coached at Memorial Junior High School, Clairemont High School, Kearny, San Diego City College, San Bernardino College, UCSB and Taft College. The last four years he also has been a scout for the Chicago Bears of the National Football League.

AFL sidelights:

There will be a slight change in the striping of the official American Football League football to be used in night games during the 1967 season, AFL President Milt Woodward has announced.

The new night football will include a stripe only three-quarters of the way round the ball, leaving unstriped the quarter of the ball normally gripped by the thumb of the passer.

Some passers had pointed out that the striping on the football created a slippery condition when it was gripped by the passer's thumb.

Here Next Weekend

Stearns No. 1 Entry For MB Ski Tourney

Chuck Stearns, one of the real big names in water skiing, will again head an impressive list of entries in next weekend's sixth annual Tournament of Champions invitational meet in Mission Bay.

Co-sponsored by the Mission Bay boat and Ski Club and the Mission Bay Associates, the meet will be held at Hidden Anchorage Cove starting at 9 a.m. both Saturday and Sunday.

Stearns will be arriving from the World team tryouts in Georgia where he was favored to make the United States team for the sixth straight year.

The Tournament of Champions is virtually "his" for the muscular Bellflower lad has taken the men's championship all five years here.

Point Loma's Larry Penacho, who could and has given him battles before, will not be here due to service obligations. Larry was able to compete for the World team, however.

Stearns, who holds more ski records than any other skier in the world, has the world speed record of 119.52 miles per hour.

Other entrants arriving from the tryouts include Leroy Burnette, Mike Snyderhous and Kris La Point from San Francisco; Dennis Rahlves and Tom Decker from Oakland; Lisa St. John of Fall River Mills and San Diego's own Stephanie Stevens.

Miss Stephens is the favorite to defend her '66 women's division title, although Miss St. John, 1965 and 66 junior National Junior Girls champion, could make it a close battle.

Miss St. John won a Masters rating in trick, jump and slalom, all at the tender age of nine.

Bill Barlow, chairman of the board of the American Water Ski Association, will serve as chief judge. He will do same for the World Tournament in Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Admission to the tournament is free and spectators may reach the site by using an access road approximately a half mile south of the information booth on Mission Bay Drive.

and Chief Warrant Officer
Donald G. Albee.

True or false? Cigarettes don't hurt teenagers. False.
Most athletes don't smoke because they know it reduces their fitness and endurance.
The earlier you start and the more you smoke, the greater your risk of heart attack, says
the San Diego County Heart Association.
